RADYR CHAIN

SATURDAY 2ND MAY 1892

WELSH HOME RULE IS DEAD From our Parliamentary Correspondent.

Welsh Politicians in town are stating that Welsh Home rule is practically dead and gone. Mr Alfred Thomas takes another He intends to make the question a binding one at the next General Election, and it is understood that some new developments may be expected shortly. Mr Thomas claims that he can reckon on the warm support of one the most active members of the Young Party.

LOBBY FOR A LOCAL SHOP

Villagers are discussing the possibility of the opening of the first village general shop. It has been suggested that a shop could be opened in Station Road shortly. This would overcome the need for local people having to cross the river to Whitchurch or using the passenger train to Cardiff, to buy their family groceries and provisions.

The question is, could the village support a local shop and would they use it? interested parties would only committ themselves to such a venture if they believed they had the support of community.

The Editor would strongly encourage the readership to give support to this project and hope that it might be the start of an active commercial centre close to the station and main road through the village.

RELIGIOUS CHILDREN

TRAINING

and Mrs Alfred Lear of Llantrisant have expressed their wish to give religious instruction to the children of Radyr and Morganstown. Sunday School will be held in the house at Junction Terrace each Sunday at 11.0.am. Mr Lear is foreman of Goods Department of the Penarth Junction.

RELIEF OF THE POOR

In his sermon last Sunday at the church of St John Baptist the Rector stated his concern for the relief of the poor of the parish. Private charity had supplemented provision and special thanks were given to church members who had distributed food and coal to the deserving cases in the village.

GRAND THEATRE CARDIFF

LIVERMORE BROTHERS'

WORLD-RENOWNED COURT MINSTRELS

35 STAR ARTISTES 35 IN A NEW AND ORIGINAL PROGRAMME REPLETE WITH NOVELTY

PRICE OF ADMISSION: PRIVATE BOXES 215. AND 105.60 DRESS CIRCLE 35. UPPER CIRCLE AND STALL 25 PITS 15. GALLERY 6D. CHILDREN HALF PRICE.

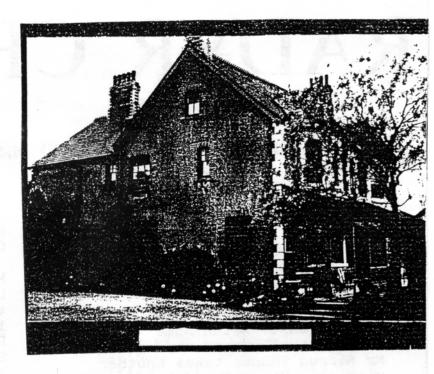

LOOKING TO THE FUTURE 100 YEARS ON By our local Astrologer. Madame Claire Voyant

The villages of Radyr and Morganstown will grow tenfold with an inhabitancy families of four. The menfolk serve the community educating their children, providing medicine, journalism and many other skills. crafts of today will have largely disappeared and farming of the land greatly declined. Many new buildings will be erected to provide education, instruction religious social enjoyment. new church will adorne the centre of the village with a grand tower built in the glory of The passenger railway system will have developed into major means a transportation, and many more horseless type carriages will be seen to frequent Heol Isaf causing nuisance to the many residents who live alongside the main route. The hard work and tedious present efforts of the still be generation will evident 100 years on in the buildings and agricultural structures. present Mission Rooms will become a centre of activity for the whole community and will stand as a memorial our times.

NOTICE TO CRAFTSMEN

Carpenters and Joiners are informed that a Strike is pending in the town of Cardiff.
All Masons are requested to keep away from Pontypridd and district pending the dispute.

FOR SALE GLAN-YR-AFON

Lord Windsor has placed the above property for sale by public auction. The house stands above the railway junction looking out over the fields towards Whitchurch and is within close proximity of the passenger station. land is leased by the said Lord and will carry the rights of tenure for a period of 999 The Auctioneer, years. Joseph George Maddox of the Lodge, Radyr invites all those interested parties wishing to make bids for this desirable gentlemen's property assemble at Glan-yr-Afon at 9.0am on Wednesday 4th May 1892.

DR WILLIAMS' CURES SLEEPLESSNESS

An over active mind can be calmed by taking a walk prior to retiring.

A biscuit and glass of hot milk or home made lemonade is an excellent sleeping draught. A tepid bath and hot water bottle to feet are in most cases sufficient to induce sleep.

GENERAL ELECTION

Our London correspondent at Westminster states it is generally believed that the General Election will take place during the first week of July.

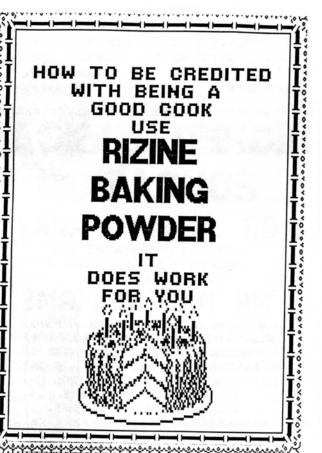

The date is expected to be 3rd July 1892.

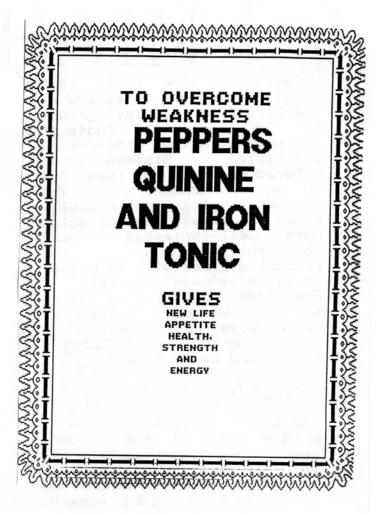

GARDEN PARTY

Colonel and Mrs H. Oakdin Fisher of Ty My nydd House, Radyr invite residents of the village to a garden party in aid of the poor.

Those interested in attending this occasion should note that it will commence at 2.0pm on Saturday next and finish at 5.0pm.

Colonel Oakdin Fisher will receive guests from 1.30pm onwards, followed by an address.by the High Sheriff of Glamorgan on behalf of the Poor Fund for Wales.

SITUATIONS VACANT AUTOMATIC KNITTING MACHINE

Ladies can earn from 15s to 30s weekly at home by the Automatic Knitting Machine. Cash or easy purchase terms; work supplied. Address W.D. Company, 67, Southwark Street, London Agency: 33 Oxford Street, Swansea.

GARDENER

Mr Maddox of The Lodge, Radyr is offering the position of head gardener. Applicants should have completed indentures with a professional horticulturist for a least a period of 5 years. A weekly payment of 150s will be paid to the successful candidate following satisfactory interview and reference.

NINE A SIDE FOOTBALL

On Saturday 30th April 1892 about 1000 people assembled at the Cardiff Harlequins' ground witness a football tournament on the nine-a-side principle. Sixteen teams entered and most of them put in an appearance. weather being delightfully fine, the games, some of which were well-contested. thoroughly enjoyed. The remaining games will be played on Saturday next, 7th May. The teams remaining in being the All Whites, Crusaders, Canton Boys, Grangetown, City Boys, Corinthians, Cardiff Saints and Bowry Boys.

CRICKET IN RADYR

The local cricket team will hold a match at the cricket grounds next Saturday 7th May and will oppose Whitchurch X1.
Spectators should be at the ground by 1.30 pm to observe the start of the game.

TO LET
NO 1 LANDSCAPE PLACE, LLANDAFF.

The above property is available to let . 10 rooms and a nice lawn in front with garden.

Apply to Mr Jenkins, of Maesllech, Radyr for further details.

WEATHER FORECAST

Saturday Forecast:
Northerly and North Westerly
winds, light and moderate;
fair generally: milder.
Saturdays Weather:
South Easterly winds: fair and milder.
The forecast of the weather
throughout the West of England and South Wales for Monday is as follows:Easterly and North Easterly winds, fresh or strong; some rain at first, then fair.

SITUATIONS VACANT RADYR MISSION ROOM

The Headmaster of the Mission Room Mr J.B. Matthew is pleased to advise that a vacancy for the position of School Attendance Officer has become available from the commencement of the new term starting on Monday 16th May 1892.

The suitable candidate should be male in his mid twenties, adequately trained in skills of school administration and of good education.

References from a previous employer will be required and Mr Matthew will need to be satisfied that the candidate is of good conduct, reliable and honest.

The position will carry a weekly gratuity of one pound. All writing material will be provided..

Applications for this vacancy should be sent in writing to the Secretary of the School Board, Radyr Mission Room, Heol Isaf, Radyr.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Many of the items printed in this edition are taken from local papers of the time. We will let you be the judge of which ones!

HIGHER MUSICAL EDUCATION

DR JOSEPH PARRY

LECTURER ON MUSIC AT THE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE, CARDIFF AND HIS ASSISTANT

MR D.C. WILLIAMS